

December 13 and December 15, 2011

Thank you for attending this public information open house for projects CSNHS-0009-00(156) and CSNHS-0009-00(157) in Henry and Clayton counties, the I-75 Express Lanes Project. In this handout package you will find a Project Description and FAQ sheet, two project location maps with potential access points, renderings of potential access points, a detour map, and a comment form. The objectives of this public information open house are to allow you to view study area maps and displays, and get answers to project questions, and provide your comments.

Georgia Department of Transportation (GDOT) representatives, identified by their name tags, are available to discuss the project and answer your questions. There will be no formal presentation.

Your comments are important to us. As a convenience to you, we have provided a number of different ways for you to give us your comments on this project. 1) A court reporter is available tonight for those persons who would like to make a verbal statement about the project. 2) You may complete a comment form and deposit it into the box provided here or 3) send in the comment form or other written comments about the project by January 3, 2012 to the following address:

Mr. Glenn Bowman, P.E
Georgia Department of Transportation
Office of Environmental Services – 16th floor
One Georgia Center - 600 West Peachtree Street, N.W.
Atlanta, Georgia 30308

4) You may also submit your comments on the project web site at www.I75express.com, or 5) You may leave a voice message on the project hotline at 404-347-0185.

All comments will be made a part of the project record. The displays at the Public Information Open House will be available for review online at www.I75express.com and until January 3, 2012 at the GDOT District 3 Area Office located at 1001 Highway 19 South, Griffin, GA and the GDOT District 7 Area Office located at 4125 Roosevelt Hwy, College Park, GA.

Again, thank you for attending this open house and for submitting your comments.

Sincerely,
